THE PARLOR
EXPERIENCE

SPEAKER | AUTHOR | ADVOCATE OF LOVE

When was that last time you asked yourself, what is Love?

RaiVision, also known as Kori Raishon, is an advocate of Love. Because of his spiritual choice on how he entered the world in this lifetime, RaiVision spent 32 years of it internally question the world around him. Pondering not only his existence in life but life itself. A spiritual Journey that has given him a unique inner understanding about Love and gender.

Since junior high school, RaiVision has been attracting women and men seeking advice about Loving. At that time he was a vessel of innocence so his ability to answer their questions, came from his spiritual inner understanding to see at life from a place outside of a gender box and from a two-spirited energy of knowing.

RaiVision identifies as a Spirited individual with trans experience. RaiVision's life journey has allowed him to be in two worlds as one individual, originating a unique perspective, as it relates to gender and the meaning of Love as a vessel of a divine consciousness. RaiVision feels that gender is one of the last frontiers to tackled as it pertains to our human existence. As human beings, we only have been looking at the surface of our existence and not the whole of who we are.

RaiVision brings his inner understanding to the stage as a speaker on Love and the role it plays in our relationships as genderless individuals.

"Gender has been created as a tool to divide people in this world. When the objective or focus should be on balancing the feminine and masculine divine within us." - Kori Raishon.
